

PEYIA CHORIO 2

PAFOS - CYPRUS

Peace of mind. . .

Location

16 km Pafos harbour
37 km Pafos International Airport

Peyia is the second largest municipality of Pafos district, stretching from Coral Bay up to Peyia village and continuing into the surroundings hills. It combines the magic of sea, mountains, forest and borders onto the untouched beauty of the Akamas National Park. Peyia is a very popular holiday destination, offering a choice of shops and restaurants by the coast.

Peyia harbours many historical and cultural secrets, from the ancient church in the heart of the village to the picturesque fountains in the village square and the municipal gardens, which are hidden by sweeping fragrant trees.

Traditional life still continues in this village which is known for its warm friendly people and community.

Development

Peyia Chorio 2 is located in the beautiful countryside of Peyia, just a short walk to the village centre. It comprises forty 1, 2 and 3 bedroom apartments and houses on a small, intimate development.

The houses offer the added attraction of private gardens and some properties are fortunate to occupy corner plots allowing for generous gardens.

The modern apartments are carefully blended into the project in low rise blocks to compliment the 2 storey houses.

Apartments feature open plan living and dining areas, en-suite bathrooms and generous sunny verandas.
